> Gentlemen: — For years I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recomi ed) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefitted by Brown's Iron Bitters, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking Brown's Iron Previous to taking Bloom's IRGA BITTERS, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since tak-ing BROWN's IRON BITTERS, all my troubles are at an end. Can eat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically another person. Mrs. W. J. Flynn, 30 Mayerick St., E. Boston.

January 18th .- A very unpleasant difficulty occurred at the Southern Hotel between Freddie Gebhardt, of New York, and Colonel A. B. Cunningham, a well-known journalist, now serving as reporter on the Globe Democrat, causing a great excitement. The facts are that Colonel Cunningham was smoking a cigar in the hotel rotunda when Gebhardt approached him and charged him with causing the publication in the Globe-Democrat of what pretended to be a diagram of the respective apartments in the hotel of himself and Mrs. Langtry. Colonel Cunningham denied that he done so, when Gebhardt called him a liar, cur, hound and scoundrel, and shaking his fist in his face, challenged him to fight. Colonel Cunningham, who is of an old and aristocratic Southern family, said he was a Southern gentleman, and not versed in the science of boxing, but that Mr. Gebhardt would hear from him before long. He then withdrew to the Globe-Democrat office, where he had a consultation with the managing editor, who counseled him to sleep over the matter and decide upon his action the next day. He did so, and this afternoon John Jennings, dramatic critic of the Globe-Democrat, carried a challenge from him to Geb-hardt, asking him to take a pleasure trip with him to Indian Territory, where, with an attendant friend apiece, they could settle their differences like gentle-men. Gebhardt finished writing an answer accepting the challenge, when Mrs. Langtry, who had gotten wind of the affair, tapped on the door of the room and gained admission. After a long entreaty on her part she gained Gebhardt's promise that he would not accept the challenge, and it it was shown him that he had acted hastily the previous evening he would apologize for his language. Though not a fireater, Colonel Cunningham is known as a man of great personal courage. He entered the cavalry branch of the Confederate service when a mere boy, and rose to the rank of Captain, gaining a fine record as a gallant soldier. During the interview the Prince coolly smoked a cigarette, and asked permission to order a carriage to take his necessaries with him. The request was somewhat brusquely refused. Thereupon the Prince was conveyed in a coupe to the conciergerie, accompanied by three policemer. His aid-de-camp was not allowed to accompany him. Affray at Constantinople. London, January 18th .- Various accounts from Constantinople state that there was an affray Saturday between two regiments of the Palace Guard, one of them composed of Albanians and the other Africans. About fifty of the combatants were killed or wounded. There was nothing political in the affair.

METROPOLITAN THEATER.

The Madison Square Theater Company presented last night, for the first time in this pleasing and affecting drama in a manner which leaves no doubt as to the merit of the people composing it. The train upon which the company left Reno was wrecked near Cape Horn Mills and they were brought to this city by special train, arriving in the city at half-past 7 in the evening, and being compelled to go at once to the theater without rest or refreshment. "Esmeralda" is a very touching picture of home life, and gives opportunity for some very fine acting. It is in the hands of talented and conscientious people, who will make it as popular upon this coast as was "Hazel" on balcony rail, was a scroll-work on a white background, producing a very pretty effect, while upon the walls above and below the gallery were large curtains, bearing comic subjects and representations. Between the curtains and in all the panels were a great variety of banners, bannerettes, coats of arms, small flags and bunting draperty. Depending from the gallery rail were hung baskets, evergreens and flowers. From two central points of the ceiling depended tong streamers, caught up at points along the sides of the hall. The work of decorating was performed by Mr. Boyne. upon this coast as was "Hazel was performed by Mr. Boyne. It is totally unlike that powerful Kirke." It is totally unlike that powerful drama in plot, but it is a worthy successor to it. There are only ten people in the cast, and all are good, there being no "stick" in the company. Leslie Allen, as Elbert Rogers, gave evidence of superior talent, and Miss Viola Allen, or the hearts of the auditory. "Tanhauser March;" Selection, "Constellations." as Esmeralda, won the hearts of the audience. Miss Sidney Cowell was simply charmwould be doing her injustice if he insisted upon marrying her. For her sake he leaves her. Rogers and Esmeralda are dragged off the Point in the content of her. Rogers and Esmeralda are dragged on to Paris by the scheming and ambitious mother, who seeks to marry Esmeralda to a worthless Marquis. Dave Hardy follows his Director; S. Looryea, K. Hyman, Elias Steinman, S. Ginsberg, S. N. Feldheim, Gus Steinman, S. Ginsberg, S. N. Feldheim, Gus Bard J. N. Hartstall. love to Paris, and nearly dies of starvation, Steinman, S. He is suddenly very rich and short distance this side of Cape Horn mills, very pretty, some even rich in material and and running at the rate of about twelve miles style. There was not, perhaps, as many original characters as her averaged at the cape of the control of the cape of the ca the through "dead" was thrown from the track. It took with it five cars containing cattle, and two of them were completely wrecked, the cattle either being killed or allowed to escape. A brakeman named Wm. H. Morgan was caught in the wreck and instantly killed. A young man named Marston, who was stealing a ride, was also badly injured. He was brought to Colfax and received medical treatment, but died within an hour after his arrival there. Morgan has two brothers and a married sister living in this city. Marston was recently connected with the Boston Comic Opera Company, alias the Winsor Comic Opera Company, which met with a financial wreck in Truckee a short time ago. The young man was endeavoring to get back to San Francisco, where his parents reside. James H. Love, acting manager of the Madison Sentences. the Madison Square Company, immediately upon reaching Colfax, telegraphed to the Superintendent, and a special train was se-cured, which brought their car and several of the front cattle cars to this city. Phil. Douglas, with the wrecking train and crew, was immediately dispatched to the scene of the accident. General Master Mechanic Stevens, Assistant McKenzie and Master Mechanic Cooley, of Rocklin, went with the BOARD OF SUPERVISORS .- The Board of Supervisors were in regular session yesterday. Present, a full Board. The patition asking that Lafayette Eldred be appointed Superintendent of the hospital farm was received, and on motion the action of the Board in electing Mr. Franks to that position was econsidered. Eldred and Franks were then placed in nomination for the position, and Eldred was elected by the following vote: McLaughlin, Bailey, Christy, Smith, Stein-man. Steinman gave notice that he would man. Steinman gave notice that he would move to reconsider the vote. A motion by Steinman, and seconded by Blair, that the legality of the election of Smith as Chairman of the Board be referred to the District Attorney for his opinion, was carried. The Clerk was instructed to notify Coyle Bros. in writing (to be served by the Sheriff) that they must at once move the wood delivered at the County Hospital, or accept the offer made by the Board. The following resolution was passed: "That all Road Overseers be required to attach receipted bills to all of the reports to the Board for all moneys paid the reports to the Board for all moneys paid out by them for labor, material or otherwise; and that no reports will be received unless such receipted bills accompany the reports." THE WALDEN CASE. - The trial of Miner Walden for perjury occupied the attention of the Superior Court all day yesterday. Argu-store and dealer. ment was heard in the merning on the objection to the admission of the testimony of William Williams, who was the defendant in the trial in which the alleged perjury was committed. The objection was overruled and Williams was put on the witness stand. He detailed the facts of the stealing and disposition of the cattle, and was severely cross-examined by counsel Turner. His examina-tion took up the remainder of the day. The court room was crowded with witnesses in the trial and by spectators. The trial will continue this morning, beginning at 9:30 o'clock.

MASOUERADE

Tenth Annual Masked Ball of the Eureka Social Club.

The tenth annual masquerade of the Eureka Social Club was held last evening at Armory Hall, and was another successful social event with this well known club. The arrangements for the occasion had been carefully and amply arranged, and were carried out in a manner to reflect full credit and the utmost appreciation by those who participated upon the floor or as spectators. The masked parties a season of enjoyable amuse-ment and interest. The new Armory Hall, with its extensive floor area and large seating capacity, enabled the audience last evening to enjoy all that was presented without intertion of the floor, and without the necessity of standing, as a large portion of similar audiences have frequently been compelled to do at the Pavilion.

CONCERT, DRILL, ETC.

During the concert a squad of the Governing as Nora Desmond, and E. J. Buckley sustained the character of Dave Hardy in a mand of Captain Eisenmenger, which, with masterly manner. Thomas Whiffen, as Estabrook, made a very pleasing impression. The plot of the p'ay is briefly this: Eibert Rogers is an honest old North Carolina farmer, living with his wife Lyddy Ann and daughter Esmeralda on a poor farm. The young girl is in love with Dave Hardy, who has built a house, to which he proposes to take his bride, when a speculator from New York appears on the scene, and having ascer-York appears on the scene, and having ascer- adopted to prevent the admission of any imtained that there is iron ore on the land he pays a large price for a half interest in it. Consultation Free—I invite the sick.

ONSULTATION FREE-I INVITE THE SICK, and investigate for themselves before abandoning all hope, for it will cost you nothing. I give no encouragement unless there is a fair prospect of making a cure. I will endeavor to be candid in my opinion and reasonable in my charges. I claim not to cure ever body, but to cure all that c in be cured. I am formerly from New York City, and a graduate of one of the best medical colleges in the United States, and a most thorough Electricain, and have had many years successful practice in the treatment of both acute and chronic diseases. To remove all doubts and convince my patients that I claim nothing but what I am, I refer to my diploma and the numerous recommendations in my possession, which will always be ready for inspection at my office. I have located permanently in this city, and all I ask is that you give me a fair, unbiased trial, by which I hope to ment your confidence and give entire satisfaction to all suffering humanity. My reputation has been acquired by candid, honest dealing, and years of successful practice. I know the cause and remedy needed, not by guess work, but by years of experience in the treatment of various diseases.
